

the past President of the USNSA, David Hishin, in Chile for the meeting of solidarity with the people of Southeast Asia, but USNSA made its presence felt in Dubrovnik. [redacted] at [redacted] a letter dated August 29 from the present USNSA President, Largo Tabankin, which indicated that the USNSA is endeavouring to hold an international meeting of youth and student leaders in Washington on October 13 to discuss "the possibility of coordinating student actions around a single date, preferably the beginning of November." This meeting is being held at the start of a nationwide student moratorium against the war in Southeast Asia. Preparations for the meeting, according to the letter, date back to May 1971 when Michel Serac, the President of the Trotskyist Youth Alliance for Socialism (AJS) wing of the French UNEF invited Hishin to meet with European student leaders. It was evident from this meeting that the "concept for a larger gathering of student leaders," to quote Tabankin's letter, emerged. This, in turn, was supported by the 24th National United States Student Congress, in August, which also authorized the UNEF (AJS) representative to Dubrovnik, J. C. Bokschbaum, to present the Tabankin letter of invitation to Washington to the student leaders at Dubrovnik. (Throughout the USNSA letter it is interesting to note the fact that there are two factions of UNEF is not mentioned.) [redacted] said that the idea of the meeting in Washington was very well received in Dubrovnik and he feels that it will be a very important meeting.

Rec'd from [redacted]
CA 0071

APPROVED FOR RELEASE
Date 10 Aug 1967